

---

Agenda Item:	Committee Reports	Presenter:
Hospitality Committee		Millie Fangman
Sunshine Committee	no report
Communications Committee	A flyer will be provided to the street communication chairpersons with information about the Yard Sale and the _____	Millie Fangman

---

Agenda Item	Upcoming Events:
Discussion	Garage Sale. Saturday, May 9th, 9 am-3 pm. Rain date is Saturday, May 16. Residents will be able to participate by paying $10 to the PHCA. Neil and Greg are handling all the arrangements and will have maps that day. Flyers have been produced and will be distributed to local businesses, schools, and street communication chairs. Neil is preparing posters to be displayed locally. There will be advertising in the Kentucky Enquirer and the Recorder. It was suggested that Greg and Neil work with Park Hills City Clerk, Julie Alig regarding the signs. Also, another contact to participate would be the Behringer-Crawford Museum since it is "in our back yard".	Neil Frankl and Greg Claypole
add more here	Memorial Day Parade. Monday, May 25, The parade will again be staged at NKU's Covington Campus on Dixie Highway; participants are to enter from Mt. Allen Road. The PHCA Board is to walk or ride in the parade. Help is always needed for setting up. The Civic Association will have a membership table at the Bake Sale. Parade Grand Marshall is still pointing to Mr. Shaffer, Park Hills resident who has been the organist at Cathedral Basilica in Covington for 50 years. The Park Hills Avant Gardeners will continue to do the Bake Sale the day of the Parade.	Steve Ryan
	Annual Picnic. Natalie Maier is to chair the event. Date to be announced but will probably be in September after Labor Day. Comments from Natalie: "Trolley Park, the Heart of Park Hills, will once again be the center of attention for the Park Hills Civic Association Picnic. A past favorite gathering of old time friends and neighbors, The Park Hills Civic Association Picnic will once again be the create lasting memories for those who attend. Watch for more detail on this fall event." The Board discussed ending the picnic with "movie night".	Jill Chalfant
	Plant Swap. Amy Clark is beginning to organize a plant swap. Participants could get 1 ticket for each plant provided. The ticket would then be used for a comparable plant. Would consider doing in the fall when residents may be dividing plants. Amy is to contact the Ft. Wright Garden club for ideas and instructions as they do one every year.	Amy Clark
	Play Groups. Amy Clark would like to organize a "Mother and Child Play" at Trolley Park. It would be organized by the child's age group	Amy Clark

---

---

Agenda item:

Web Page. Carol Bethel reported that Gateway Web students are working on creating a new page. The content pages have not arrived (at this writing) and will be provided the week of April 20. There was a discussion about advertising and Greg Johnson has agreed to solicit for the new HUB. The Board prefers to hold the advertising until the web page is completed and the Board and review it. We discussed having advertising on page except the first (home) page. More to follow.

Presenter:

Jill Chalfant, Albert Fedders, Carol Bethel

HUB deadline: May 10, 2009. Articles should be submitted to Jill Chalfant until an editor has been named. Jill is to contact Julie Alig, City Clerk, for city news. Steve Ryan is to provide an article about the Memorial Day Parade. Board members are asked to provide additional articles such as Mother's Day, the Plant Swap, the Picnic, Avant Gardener News, and others. Suggestions and articles are welcome.

Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 9:20 pm.

---

Next Meeting: May 14 , 7:30 pm, City Building

Submitted by: Carol Bethel

---